FIPA and OAS to Sign a Cooperation Agreement

Washington DC, June 24, 2009. FIPA and OAS will sign a cooperation agreement to pursue matters of common interest. This was the major outcome of the meeting held yesterday by FIPA Executive Committee members and the OAS Secretary for External Relations, Adam Blackwell.

The meeting with OAS representatives preceded the Executive Committee meeting held today on Capitol Hill, during which preparations of the Sixth Plenary Meeting - to take place in Ottawa next September 13 to 15 - were discussed. Congressman Gregory Meeks, Chair of the recently created OAS Caucus, attended the meeting as observer.

Among other issues, members also decided to hold the next trade knowledge workshop in Mexico.
