Dominican Republic creates FIPA section

Miami, December 18, 2008. The Chamber of Deputies of the Dominican Republic has created a Dominican-FIPA Friendship Group. This news was contained in a letter presented to the Executive Committee by the Chair of the Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation Committee, Minerva Tavárez Mirabal, today, in Miami.

The creation of this new FIPA section will advance the objectives of the organization and further dialogue between Dominican legislators and their counterparts in the Americas.

FIPA invites member Parliaments to create chapters in their respective countries.

To create a chapter in your country, please contact the FIPA Secretariat at info@e-fipa.org
